

MUSIC MAKERS:

The Power of Indigenous Music

Indigenous music is by its nature participatory; it lends itself to socialization.

Songs come from the natural world and from dreams, often expressing a deep appreciation for life and sustenance.

Join us for a special Concert of Indigenous Music plus a two-day Rattle-Making Workshop. Both events open to everyone.

CONCERT
SAT. OCT. 27, 2018
1:00 to 4:00pm

RHYTHMS & RATTLES: A Look at Indigenous Music

Performers

RENE MESHAKÉ
JANI LAUZON
SADIE BUCK (Storyweaver)

The audience is invited to a meet & greet after the concert to speak with the performers.

Refreshments served.

Gathering Place By The Grand
2593 Chiefswood Rd.
Ohsweken, ON
226-446-9900

WORKSHOP
SAT. NOV. 10 & SUN. NOV. 11, 2018
10:00am to 2:00pm

SHAKING THE RATTLE: Traditions and Rattle Making

Over the course of two days, Rattle Maker ADAM SKYE will teach participants how to make personal rattles.

SADIE BUCK will lead participants in a RATTLE CIRCLE OF RHYTHMIC SONG

Buffet lunch served.

Registration required (20 participants only).

Please email to: info@metiswomenscircle.ca

Royal Botanical Gardens
Room 5, 680 Plains Rd. West
Burlington, ON
905-527-1158

A METIS WOMEN'S CIRCLE PROJECT FUNDED BY NEW HORIZONS FOR SENIORS
WEBSITE: www.metiswomenscircle.ca | EMAIL: info@metiswomenscircle.ca

